Since the fall of 1928, the science department has included one of Horlick's most loved and respected instructors.

As advisor, teacher, — friend —
Mr. Sims has made a place at Horlick which can never be filled.

This annual, the last in which Mr. Sims' picture will appear, is dedicated to him. We hope that it will bring him as many pleasant memories of us as we shall retain of him.

They Plan Our Entire Year

Werner Smith
Principal

Being a principal of a large school like Horlick is not a seasonal job. From the moment that school adjourns in the spring until Mr. Smith welcomes us in the fall, his task of planning our activities goes on.

Having studied at Carthage College, the University of Iowa, the University of Chicago, and the University of Wisconsin, as well as having taught in the science department at Horlick, Mr. Smith is well-prepared to be our leader.

Francis Nemacheck
Vice Principal

New at Horlick, but already popular is Mr. Nemacheck who came to us this year from our city rival, Washington Park. Mr. Nemacheck has studied at Lawrence College, and the University of Wisconsin. He serves us as a teacher of World Civics and Journalism, and as advisor to the Herald and to Student Council.

*Hi, Horlick! Best wishes.
J. B. Nemacheck*

Our motto: - We may not always be right - but we are never wrong. - It has been quite a pleasant experience to have you in class. - Good luck. - J. B. Nemacheck

Mr. Taylor and Mr. Wackman enjoy a game of cribbage down in the machine shop after a hearty meal in the cafeteria. Other members of the faculty who occasionally make their way to our faculty men's card club are Stewart, Curtis, Bahnson, Ewers, and Hubbard.

At the teacher's table in the cafeteria, we see most of the faculty every day enjoying the excellent cuisine of Miss Patton and Mrs. Johnson. In addition to the good food, the teachers find stimulation in the conversation!

Beside bi-weekly meetings to discuss the problems facing students and teachers, this year the faculty presented a talent show for the entertainment of the student body.

In order to give our parents a view of what school life is like, the faculty presented an open house which proved advantageous to students, faculty, and parents.

For these and the many other things they've done for us, we give our thanks to a wonderful faculty.

Fall

Sophs Gain Horlick Spirit

With an air of excitement the sophomores entered Horlick High School. There was a large number of them and they seemed to be all over the school. They were wide-eyed at some of the things that went on, and in most instances they seemed to take everything in their stride, even the jokes about the elevator. The sophomores soon settled down to their work, and most have become good students. They have co-operated by joining the school clubs, sports, and activities. Now they are the ones upon whom the school rests. The school is proud to have such good students and friends.

Varied Classes

One of the popular subjects offered in the Practical Arts Division is printing offered by Mr. Wackman. In addition to learning the techniques of the printing industry, the boys learn composition, writing, and arrangement.

In this picture we find Eddie Krusienski, Arlen Koenigsreiter, and Sarkis Keochekian setting type under the not-so-watchful eye of Mr. Wackman.

The girls don't take printing as a rule, but neither do the boys take advantage of the fine courses offered by Miss Wilson and Miss Patton in the home economics department. The girls design and make their own garments in the sewing class, and often that chic dress a girl wears to school is her own creation. See if you can recognize anyone besides Eleanore Snyder!

A fall activity that continues all year long, through the summer, and often throughout the working careers of Horlick girls is the activity that begins in the commercial department. Concentrating on that extra-long typing assignment are Janet Bergsbaken, Marg Hansen, Marilyn Schmall, Audrey Marck, and Helen Just. Miss Rumage helps Helen with a difficult word.

Transferring his activities from both the electrical shop and the drafting room, Mr. Henderson is here shown with his drafting students. Don Hyatt is receiving the benefit of Mr. Henderson's instruction at the moment, but Don Bruno, Jim Carrington, Dave Chernouski, and Ed Reichel seem to be concentrating a bit more diligently than usual.

Mean Work . . .

A far cry from the mortar and pestle of the Indians is the instrument Jerry Litrenta wields as he and girlfriend Janet Connolly prepare an experiment for Mr. Wilkerson's chemistry class. The choice of the proper laboratory partner always helps to make the class more interesting.

Again in the commercial department, Horlick girls receive training which will prepare them for jobs in Racine offices or for taking lecture notes for that all-important college exam. Mrs. Connolly makes shorthand particularly meaningful for Janice Felbob (foreground), Jean Foreman, Sally O'Neil, Betty St. Amand, and Hunaz Hazarian.

Students gathered eagerly around the demonstration table are in the biology lab under the direction of Miss Houg. Here John is the center of attraction for Evelyn Petersen, Allan Bahr, Carol Stephen, Dave Iselin, and Shirley Hendrickson. Diana Benson does a little investigating on her own.

Tangents, bi-sectors, planes, and other mysterious items are the stock-in-trade of the mathematics department, and in particular of the sophomore students who take geometry. Although Shirley Schwertfeger and most of the class seem interested in Miss Shaw's explanation of a theorem, Frank Giandinoto directs his attention elsewhere.

And Fun!

One of the hardest-working, but seemingly least appreciated groups of Horlick is the orchestra, pictured at the left. Working under Mr. Hubbard's direction for an hour each day, the students still find time for that extra hour or two of daily musical practice which makes a superior musical organization. Practicing while this picture was taken, we find Judy Meyers, Leigh Septon, Joyce Levandowski, Alyce Galeckas, Donna Love, Joanne Berg, Mary Meldonian, Pat Petersen, Joyce Bergsbaken, Becky Howard, Mary Benson, LaVerne Dunn, Suran Chalekian, Murad Arganian, Glenn Nechuta, Abel Carreno, Janet Bergsbaken, and Sara Keishian.

Recording the results of the physics experiment performed by Merle Freeman and Ronald Moser are Marilyn Olson, Glenn Hubbard, and Russ Wishau.

Relaxing with magazines occasionally when the day's study is finished is a favorite pastime of Horlick's students. Among those who are enjoying the library are Roy Bernard, Faith Chapin, and J. LaPour.

Driving with Mr. Curtis are Beth Quigley, Adele Fiskum, and Lucille Jung. Driving, one of Horlick's most practical half-time subjects is taught both semesters. The students start with the theory of driving and laws, after which they obtain learner's permits from the police department. The rest of the course consists of driving practice, and the final exam is for the student's state driving license.

Gridiron Combat

The slow starting 1950 Rebels football team entered this year's Big Eight Conference with two strikes against them. The boys started by losing their first four conference games after taking a nonconference tilt with Arlington Heights. The Rebels were beaten by the weighty Kenosha Red Devils to the tune of 46-6. In the third and fourth games, Madison East and West defeated Horlick, leaving the Rebels scoreless. On October 13 the Rebels made a terrific effort for the winning score over the Madison West team, but failed by six points. In the next game they revealed that good old Rebel spirit and beat Beloit by a seven point margin.

The biggest thrill of the year was the Park-Horlick game. The Horlick defensive was on the ball and kept Park from scoring until the third quarter. The score stood at 7 to 0 when Jerome Fishbain, the captain, made a thrill-packed touchdown. Shortly afterwards, Hermes and Danhauser teamed up to make the winning touchdown and extra point. The game ended with a score of 13-7.

The "B's" Back 'Em Up

Recognizing that the only firm foundation for next year's varsity is a well-drilled and eager "B" outfit Coaches Ken Bahnson and Ben Ewers pushed their charges through strenuous exercises as well as constant scrimmages against the "A" squad and games with other schools. Winning two out of their six interscholastic contests, the Junior Rebels exhibited the fact that they are potentially capable of staging a full-fledged rebellion.

A new activity this year was the student council initiated plan for a "B" squad group of cheerleaders. Competing against about twenty other entrants, the winners were narrowed by the votes of the varsity cheerleaders and five council representatives. Added pep and attendance at "B" games as well as more vim and vigor on the sidelines at "A" games proved that the idea was a good one.

Winners for the honors as understudies to the "A" Squad Cheerleaders are Tommy Kronick, Gloria Wood, Chuck Lexa, Mary Puffer, and Donna Love. Watch'em next year!!

CROSS COUNTRY

Two of the so-called "minor" sports at Horlick, although instituted only a short time ago, are becoming more and more popular with each passing year. The Cross Country Track Team, which was this year under the supervision of Mr. Piggins, competed in meets, and most of the team ran the gruelling two and a quarter miles at least five times each week during the season.

TUMBLING TEAM

Less fortunate than the cross country team even is the tumbling team, which has no official sponsor, no competition, and no definite meeting time. The members devise their own drill, outline their own routines, and strive diligently toward the few public appearances which they make during the year. Most noons find the tumblers rolling and bouncing diligently in the corridor just outside the gym door.

In Other Tilts

As a breather between more strenuous flips, contortions, and falls, the tumbling team takes time out to build a pyramid. On the bottom we find Bruce Holum, Bob Vanderleest, and Dave Kinkade, with Neil Fechner and Jim Klema forming the second tier for Chuck Lexa on top. Not participating at the moment, but saving themselves for more strenuous activity are Vilma Lopour and Mort Cilmo. On the right, Fechner, Vanderleest, Lexa and Holum sit out another period.

Playing the "old Army game" in a way that no First Sergeant could emulate are Catherine Yugas, an unidentified "server," and opponents Ruth Metz, Edie Mazzie, Jackie McCann, Joan Metz, Darlene Joslin, and Arlene Monteith.

While two girls rush for better positions, their team-mates battle over the basketball in a tip that seems to have everyone excited except Virginia Francetic. The photographer never did tell us whether Yvonne Grosskopf, Ruth Metz, or one of the other girls got the ball.

We Switch to Winter Fun

With the change to the winter season
Comes school of a different kind;
The juniors take the spot light
And the sophomores step behind.

Jim Ashenfelter, president of the junior class, relaxes in the library with his vice president, Ron Denman. From the distaff side comes Kathryn Horner, the secretary-treasurer.

The Juniors Reign

Progressing from newcomers last year to experienced hands this year are the members of the junior class. Participating in many activities, the class members made a very worthy record.

Student Council, Herald, sports, — in short, all activities — attracted the juniors, and in many cases juniors served as club officers and in other places of responsibility.

The junior class now possesses a feeling of accomplishment as its members approach their senior year. It is with sincere confidence and genuine determination that they hope to make "their year" at Horlick the most successful in history.

Each year as the school term comes to a close the year book is released. Every year the staff, composed of students from each Horlick class, has tried to produce a book better than the one presented the previous year.

The Polaris editor this year was Darlene Joslin. Editor Joslin, assisted by the section editors, and Mr. West, faculty adviser designed page layouts for the year book following the theme of "The Seasons," Autumn, Winter and Spring.

Each season was under the charge of one staff member. Helen Just took care of the Autumn section, Nona Klapproth, the Winter section, and Pat Kuehl, the Spring section.

After the layouts were made and the section head chosen, the year book began to progress. Don Bohn, Jerre Moore, Jack Hinze and Bruce Mann were kept busy taking pictures of everything happening around school, and the seniors began tripping off one by one to Zahns to have their pictures taken.

Mounting pictures ready to go to the engravers, we find Susie Chalekian, Charles Lexa, and Jacki Sommerfeld. In the back-ground, Jack Hinze, Helen Haban, Ruth Scharping, and Nona Klapproth are looking over yearbooks of the past.

In the Polaris room things were kept buzzing, as pictures were cut and placed in the correct position.

The staff wrote out the proper write-ups for each picture and soon part of the year book was at press. Graduation day came closer and closer, and finally the year book was given to the anxious students. The Polaris staff had finished its job. They had presented the completed year book before school was over, in time for students to get autographs of those seniors they might never see again. The book now belonged to the students. It was theirs to keep forever as a remembrance of their happy days at Horlick and of the friends they had made.

The year book will keep coming out every year, but each year its most important function will be to give each graduating senior the feeling that for three years he has worked and associated with the smiling faces that look up at him from the glossy pages of the Polaris.

Editor Darlene Joslin helps with the sorting of stories to meet the dead line. With her are Sara Keishian, Howard Amsterdam, and Bruce Mann. In the back-ground, Nazaly Andekian is pasting pictures.

HORLICK HERALD

Lost stories, uncorrected copy, mislaid proof — all are evidence of the hard-working Herald staff's production of eighteen bi-weekly issues of the Herald during the year. In addition, extra scurrying was done to put out a special April Fool edition and a Park-Horlick game issue. A page was devoted to the study of the United Nations, a comparison between the work of the UN and the work of Horlick.

Deadlines were hard to meet; stories were hard to find, but under the guidance of the advisers, F. B. Nemacheck and C. A. Wackman, copy was tracked down and finally fitted into the dummy.

Helen Haban was editor-in-chief throughout the year.

Dick Nielsen, sports editor during the first semester, turns to Jerry Koniecko and shows him the layout. In the back-ground are the typists' directions and hieroglyphics of the famed Herald stenographers.

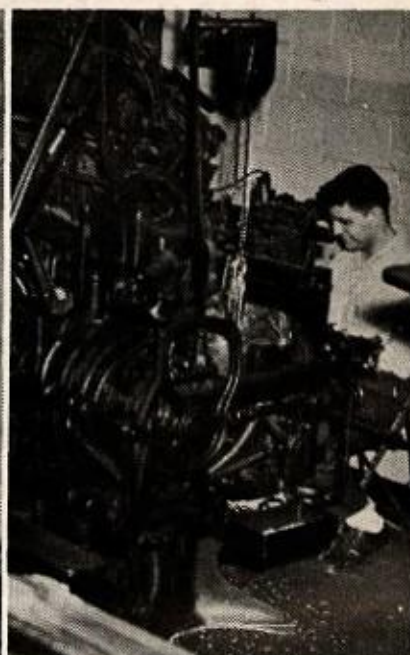

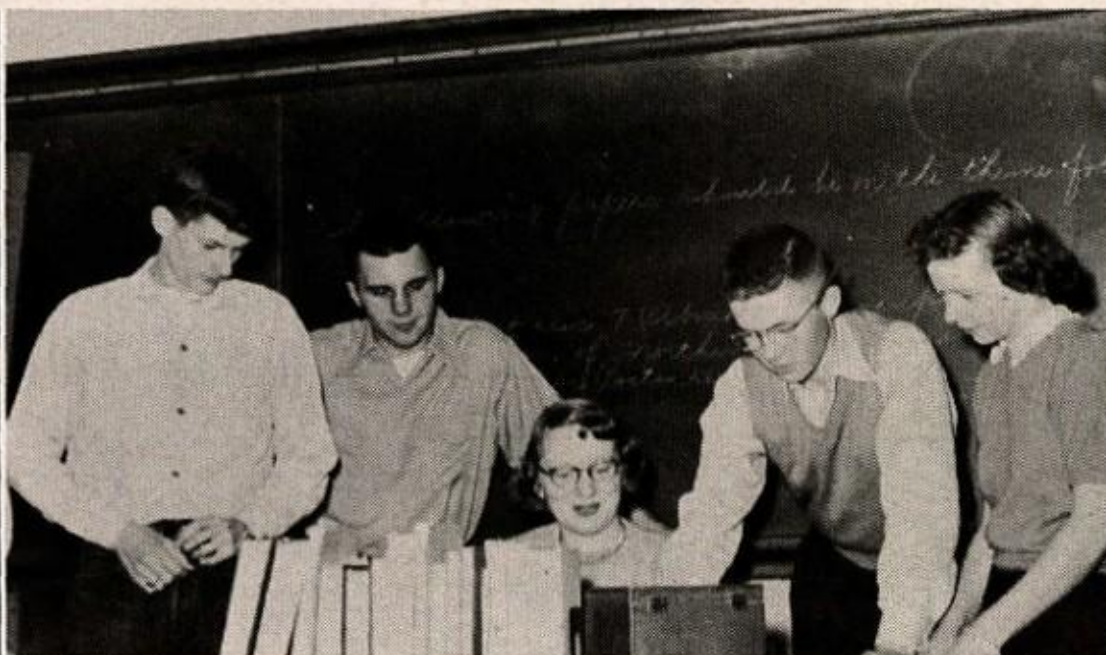

Ads were solicited by Mary Williamson and her ad staff.

Chuck Anderson, business manager, made sure that the staff kept within its budget.

Norman Weitkum, circulation manager, sent out exchange papers and distributed the Herald to homerooms.

A Pledge of Service

Tawasi, girl's Y-teen club, meets every other Thursday, alternating programs with business meetings.

In Tawasi girls have opportunities to make new friends through parties, programs, discussions, and service projects.

At the beginning of each semester, new members are accepted into the club by a formal initiation which is followed by an informal initiation. The latter event is always looked forward to by upper classmen and old members.

Being affiliated with the Y.W.C.A., Tawasi supports teen-activities at the "Y" and also helps plan and promote activities here at Horlick.

The club's officers for 1950-1951 were: First semester: President-Charlotte Olsen; Vice-president-Marcia Ritt; Secretary-Donna Iverson; Treasurer-Mary Williamson.

Second semester: President-Donna Iverson; Vice-president-Helen Haban; Secretary-Alyce Galeckas; Treasurer-Dorothy Daneek.

From the Girls . . . and Boys

Horlick's boys club, Hi-Y, is a club which combines the varied activities of formals, hikes, laughs and serious discussions. Aside from the special bi-weekly programs, Hi-Y sponsors six annual events which have great variety and color. With this fun, however, is our parallel idea of service and helpfulness to the school, community, and country.

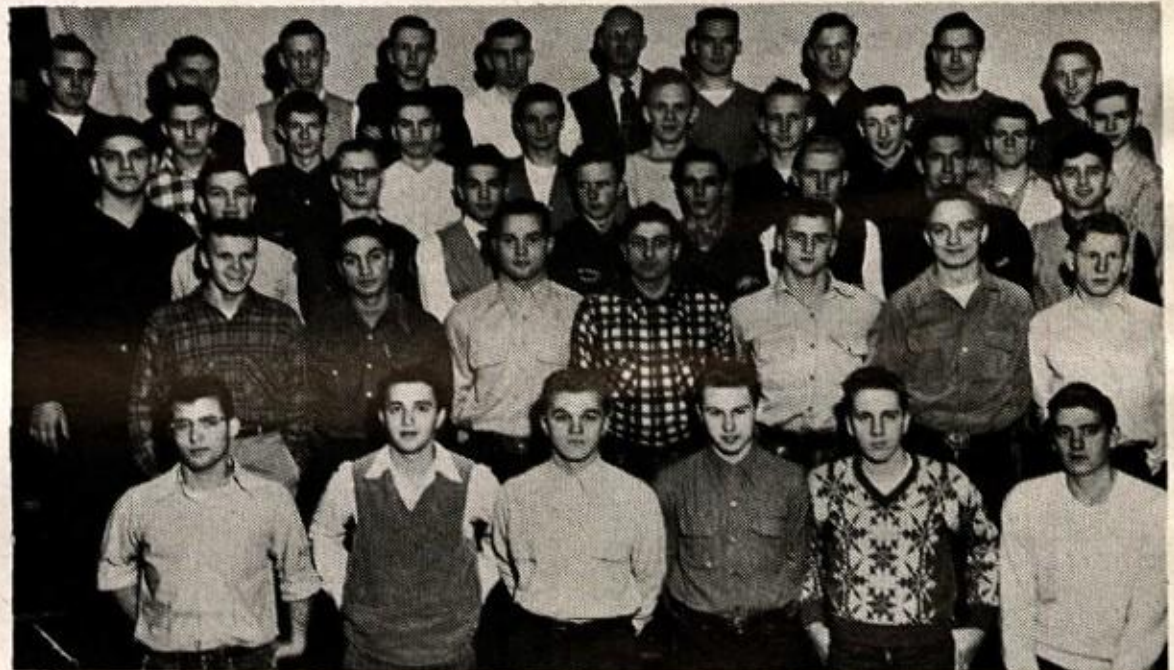

The advisor of Hi-Y, energetic, helpful Mr. James

Hancock, has — as in the past years — given of his time and effort to make an unusually outstanding club.

In this school year, Hi-Y has continued to grow under Jens Anderson, first semester leader, and Harold Vakos, second semester leader.

It is both an honor and a privilege to receive membership in Hi-Y, for it is an outstanding club.

Toward Better Speech

Producing various assembly programs and plays kept the dramatics classes busy throughout the year.

Many of the students received good acting experience in the Children's Theater Play, Many Moons. This particular play was given five times, including a performance at the Stephen Bull Orthopedic School.

Miss Julia Piquette, dramatics adviser, succeeded in forming a trouping show. This group presented various one-act plays at the junior high schools in Racine. Among the plays trouped were "Three Pills in a Bottle," "Wonder Hat," and "Antic Spring."

The Horlick students received a glimpse of the acting field when the dramatics department presented "Many Moons" and "The Perfect Gentlemen" in two assembly programs.

Highlighting the semester was the Spring play, but the publication date of the year book prohibited coverage of this event.

King J. Moore and Jester D. Sperberg help Princess J. Johnson play "Now I see, now I don't" in the Children's Theatre play, Many Moons, when it was presented to the Horlick student body.

The Great Wizard, Russ Johnson, reads off the list of tarts which have been given to Princess Johnson to cure her of the mysterious malady which keeps her pale and wan. Patiently listening while the fascinated audience watches is King Moore.

At the Mainstreet Theatre, the cast and members of the crews, N. Klapproth, D. Bruno, M. Freeman, K. Gotsche, B. Mann, T. Kehl, and C. Kundman gather for last minute pre-production preparations. Seated comfortably on the floor is D. Danek.

Rejoicing after their well-received production of Many Moons are C. Hobbs, P. Meyer, S. Hanson, M. Zitka, J. Jameson, D. Sperberg, C. Kundman, and M. Hurlimann. In the background are T. Kehl, J. Sommerfeld, G. Hubbard, N. Klapproth, and B. Mann.

In Daily Life

This year saw two groups, Forensics and Debate, participate for high honors. Forensics students have shown excellent work in humorous, extemporaneous reading, declamation, and extemporaneous speaking. Those receiving "A's" at Kenosha were T. Kehl, J. Sweetman, B. Mann, D. Sperberg, J. Schwartz, and D. Aceto. Also competing were H. Haban, B. Quigley, J. Hahn, H. Amsterdam, and J. Jameson.

An interview with Miss Julia Piquette, forensics adviser, produced this statement; "I do wish that more people would go out for forensics each year, but I must add that I am always pleased with the work of those who do compete."

Meanwhile the Debate Club competed strongly at Port Washington, Hammond, Indiana, and Marquette University.

Some teams scored impressive victories against debaters who study debate in regularly scheduled classes. Relying much on their own initiative, experienced team members gained new training while the new entrants had the advantage of working with them. Participants in various tournaments included B. Mann, J. Schwartz, N. Baumblatt, J. Remley, K. Jacobson, H. Amsterdam, J. Michna, J. Johnson, C. Katrine, J. Sommerfeld, N. Klapproth, P. Seegert, and N. Lindgren.

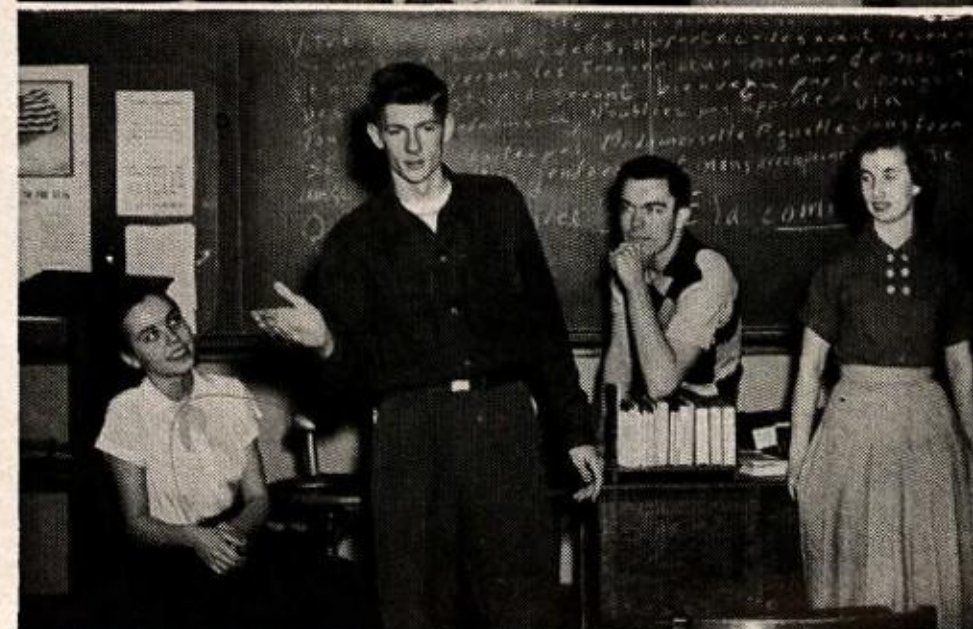

Under the excellent coaching of Mr. West, the team has developed continuously. All but three members will be back next year, indicating another successful year.

We Help Run the School

Talent shows, school parties, cheerleading uniforms, conventions, and Christmas baskets are typical of the many subjects that create heated discussions at the Wednesday noon sessions of the Student Council. As the governing body of Horlick High, it holds high the ideals of service, leadership, integrity, loyalty, sportsmanship, and scholarship which are so aptly symbolized by our seal, "The North Star". A fine co-operative attitude of students and faculty alike make Student Council a smooth-functioning body.

Student Council also serves as a means of exercising the same democratic principles for which our country is well known. One representative and one alternate are chosen from each home room to serve as the "Congressmen of Horlick High." However the meetings are open to all students of Horlick, and anyone may bring any matter before the council.

A better understanding of our school in comparison with other schools, a continued effort to serve the community as well as the school, and an attempt to serve as the nucleus of all school activities are the greatest objectives of Student Council. Under the fine supervision of Mr. Nemacheck, the Student Council has tried hard to achieve these objectives.

Our Honors and Activities

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Juniors and seniors who rank in the top third of their classes and have shown outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, and character, are eligible for selection to the National Honor Society. Membership is limited to 7½ per cent of the junior class and 15 per cent of the senior class.

During the year, National Honor members sponsored a program on scholarships available to Horlick students, held their formal initiation assembly, took charge of the office during the noon hours, and supervised the support of our Greek War Orphan, Vitalis Frangiskos.

OFFICERS: First Semester— President - Jerre Moore; Secretary - Helen Haban. Second Semester— President -

Wayne Stabenau; Secretary - Shirley Chapek. Adviser - Helen Kammerer.

TRI BETA CHI

A trip to the ice follies arranged by Mona Jo Zitka, president; Jeanne Foreman, vice-president; Ruth Metz, treasurer; and Karlyn Jacobsen, secretary; under the supervision of Dorothy Seidel, the advisor, highlighted the first semester activities of Tri Beta Chi, a girls' social and service club.

Second semester officers Gloria Zeiler, president; Janice Pfost, vice-president; Margaret Hurlimann, secretary; and Ruth Metz, treasurer; surprised the club with plans for a co-ed party at Petrified Springs and a Clipper Boat trip to Michigan.

Boys and Girls Together

Trips, parties, and sports are some of the various activities of Co-Rec, a Y.M.C.A. co-educational-recreational club of Horlick and Park High Schools.

Co-Rec, under the supervision of Miss E. Shaw, is Horlick's largest club, made up of boys and girls of all three classes. Its purpose is to promote better student relationships among the boys and girls of the two schools.

The first semester officers of the club from Horlick, Bob Gall, president; Joyce Southwell, treasurer; Vince Vassallo, vice-president; and Kathy Horner, secretary, along with the other members of the executive committee, planned, among first semester social highlights, a Chicago shopping trip and an ice-skating party.

Meeting every other Monday night second semester, the executive committee, of which the Horlick officers were Mona Jo Zitka, treasurer; Arleen Bader, secretary; and King Kovac, vice-president; planned among other activities, a trip to "South Pacific" and a dinner-dance sports night at the "Y."

With Lots of Things to Do

Providing interested students with extra-curricular experiences in widely divergent fields are the Library, Rifle, and Science Clubs.

Library students sign up for a regular class in library work which meets five days a week, although only half credit is given. The class is conducted on the workshop basis, and students work with Miss Peplinski in all phases of the operation of the school branch.

Reorganizing the second semester after an absence from the club list during the first, the Science Club selected Otto Cerny to be president, Sophie Holland, vice president, and Neil deGarmo, secretary-treasurer. Under the direction of Mr. Sims, Miss Houg, and Mr. Wilkerson, the Science Club members explored interesting scientific side-lights.

With Sharpshooter Dick Keller for president, Ron Banker for vice president, Dave Kinkade for secretary, and Neil Fechner for treasurer, the Rifle Club, under the tutelage of Mr. Hubbard met every Tuesday noon on the Horlick range for the practice that brought near perfection.

Music of the Seasons

Lorelei appeared in the Christmas and Spring concerts, at school programs, and gave several public appearances before various civic groups where their songs were greatly enjoyed. Their programs included such songs as: Great Is Thy Love, Smoke Gets In Your Eyes, and Make Believe.

While Lorelei is a girls' choral group, A Cappella includes both male and female voices.

Gowned in maroon robes with golden stoles, A Cappella played a major role in the Christmas and Spring concerts as they featured both sacred and secular music. At the Christmas concert the audience enjoyed such songs as: I Wonder As I Wander, The Lord's Prayer, and The Glory of the Lord.

Additional performances by these choral groups were given for the benefit of the parents who attended Horlick's open house the evening of March 15, 1951, and for radio listeners at Christmas time, as well as for shoppers, when the group appeared in memorial square in downtown Racine.

Both are honor groups, being composed of the outstanding singers of the junior and senior classes.

Through All the Year

"There's music in the air." It comes through the ventilators and penetrates the halls and class rooms. The senior high band and orchestra learn to interpret music for enjoyment, and practice diligently that they may share their efforts with us at football and basketball games, assembly programs, and concerts. They are under the able direction of John Hubbard. Playing both classical and popular selections, the band and orchestra has drawn from its varied repertoire to entertain students who relax during pleasant assembly programs, and to entertain parents and friends who gathered at our Christmas and Spring Concerts.

The band and orchestra combined to give a sensational jazz concert well worth the applause they received.

The Girls Earn Their "R's"

What interscholastic competition is to the boys, "R-Work" is to the girls. Meeting twice weekly, on Mondays and Wednesdays after school, the girls engage in competition among themselves in basketball, volleyball, ping pong, bowling, golf, tennis, and baseball. The exacting requirements for the coveted "R" include excellence in all of these sports as well as regular attendance at the scheduled meetings. Additional points also are required, and the letter winners have each earned sixty out-side points by such activities as skating, swimming, ping pong, hiking, bicycling, keeping health charts, and bowling.

Regular teams are organized for tournaments in all of the required sports, and it is a genuine honor to be selected team captain.

Helping Miss Lumley in the administration of the "R-Work" program are managers for each sport. It is the manager's job to take attendance, prepare equipment, and maintain charts of participation.

Working Behind the Scenes

STUDENT TREASURY

Future accountants and bookkeepers of Racine's industries get their experience by acquiring expert skill in the handling of Horlick's finances. An honor group selected from the commercial classes, these students handle all organization money, keep the club books, mimeograph, type, take dictation, file and perform all of the intricate details which make up good office procedure.

Definite jobs are assigned to each student, but to insure better acquaintance with all duties, the tasks are rotated each month. Under the direction of Mr. Cox, assisted by the chief clerk, these students have maintained the high standards of their predecessors.

TECHNICIANS

Two groups of students who expend their time and energies for the benefit of the entire school are those indispensable organizations, the Public Address System Announcers, and the Movie Operators.

The movie operators have been under the direction of Mr. Wilkerson for a number of years, and it is their task to operate the three projectors, the opaque projector, and the slide projectors whenever a teacher's plans call for visual aids.

A new group this year is the P.A. Announcers. The new public address system, paid for by the student council by means of their talent shows, was installed last summer, and is now under the control of a student-faculty committee consisting of Miss Piquette, Mr. Wilkerson, Bruce Mann, and Ted Kehl. This committee decided upon a definite policy as to the use of the system, and then held try-outs for people who wanted to serve as announcers.

The system has operated very efficiently, and the P.A. system has been effectively entered as a regular Horlick activity.

Horlick Men

WRESTLING

Although participating in a comparatively new sport at Horlick, the wrestlers, under the excellent supervision of Coach Ben Ewers, completed a fairly successful season.

Outstanding men were Wayne Stabenau, Dick Nielsen and Carlton Bergsbaken who won all-state honors as they completed their last year of competition for Horlick High; Stabenau taking state championship in the 165 lb. division with Dick Nielsen and Carlton Bergsbaken placing 3rd in the State Sectional.

Although Mr. Ewers will lose some outstanding veterans, he hopes to find the nucleus of a good 1951-52 team among the fifteen boys who wrestled in Varsity competition this year plus some new sophomore grapplers.

in Action

BOYS INTRAMURALS

The exceptional interest shown in this year's intramural contests guaranteed that a forfeit because of a lack of players could not happen.

The teams all played excellent ball, and the keen competition among home rooms gave the boys the same thrill that comes from inter-mural competition.

The finalists in the basketball tourney from each class showed that the top sophs were in home room 132, the top juniors in 149, and the top seniors in 135.

After the smoke of the play-off battle had cleared, the juniors emerged victorious as school champs.

Topping the individual sharpshooters in the free throw contest was Ron Denman, who pitched in the almost unbelievable record of 45 shots out of 50 tries.

"R" CLUB

Primarily an honor organization, the "R" men still found time to serve Horlick and Racine in a number of different capacities. Playing Santa Claus at Christmas, sponsoring a junior high basketball tournament, and having their own alumni contest, the "R" men were finally awarded by being the guests of Tawasi at an All-sports athletic banquet.

2ND ROW— Coach Rebholz, R. Denman, J. Vierheilig, C. Kamakian, R. Hermes, J. Fetek, H. Vakos, D. Bielefeldt, U. Doss, Manager G. Kamakian.
FRONT ROW— J. Fishbain, B. Aceto, D. Kizewic, D. Galati, K. Kovac, H. Hay, E. Chobanian, A. Luby.

Giant Killers on the Court

From the standpoint of close games, heartbreaking losses, and "giant-killer" wins, the 1950-51 basketball season was all any spectator could ask. Emerging from many close wins and thrilling losses, the team showed a record of six wins and eight losses in Big Eight conference play, and a total of ten wins and twelve defeats in all games.

Spear-headed by such players as Jack Vierheilig, "the team's most improved player," Jerry Fishbain, "the backbone of the team," and Bob Aceto and Dick Kizewic, "sharpshooters," the team provided many thrills for all. In addition, Vierheilig was given honorable mention in the Big Eight conference poll, and together with Dick Kizewic, was named to the All-City prep team.

Said Coach Rebholz, "If next year's returners, Bielefeldt, Chobanian, and Hermes, show continued improvement and are able to make the best use of our strong sophomore squad, we'll have the makings of a winning combination."

In the game against Beloit, U. Doss goes high for a tip as B. Aceto and D. Kizewic of Horlick hold themselves in readiness for receiving the ball.

Horlick's Next Year's Giants

B SQUAD

This year's "B" squad made a fine showing in the Big Eight, B. Division. The Rebels were sparked by co-captains Molbeck and Carrington.

Coach Bahnson did a remarkable job in keeping the squad a ten man team. There was no first or second string; all the boys were first stringers. Balanced scoring (with all ten boys contributing steadily) was another factor in the B's good showing this year. The team has great potentialities and Horlick fans will probably be hearing a lot more of many of these boys.

The End...

And Yet the Beginning...

In Spring

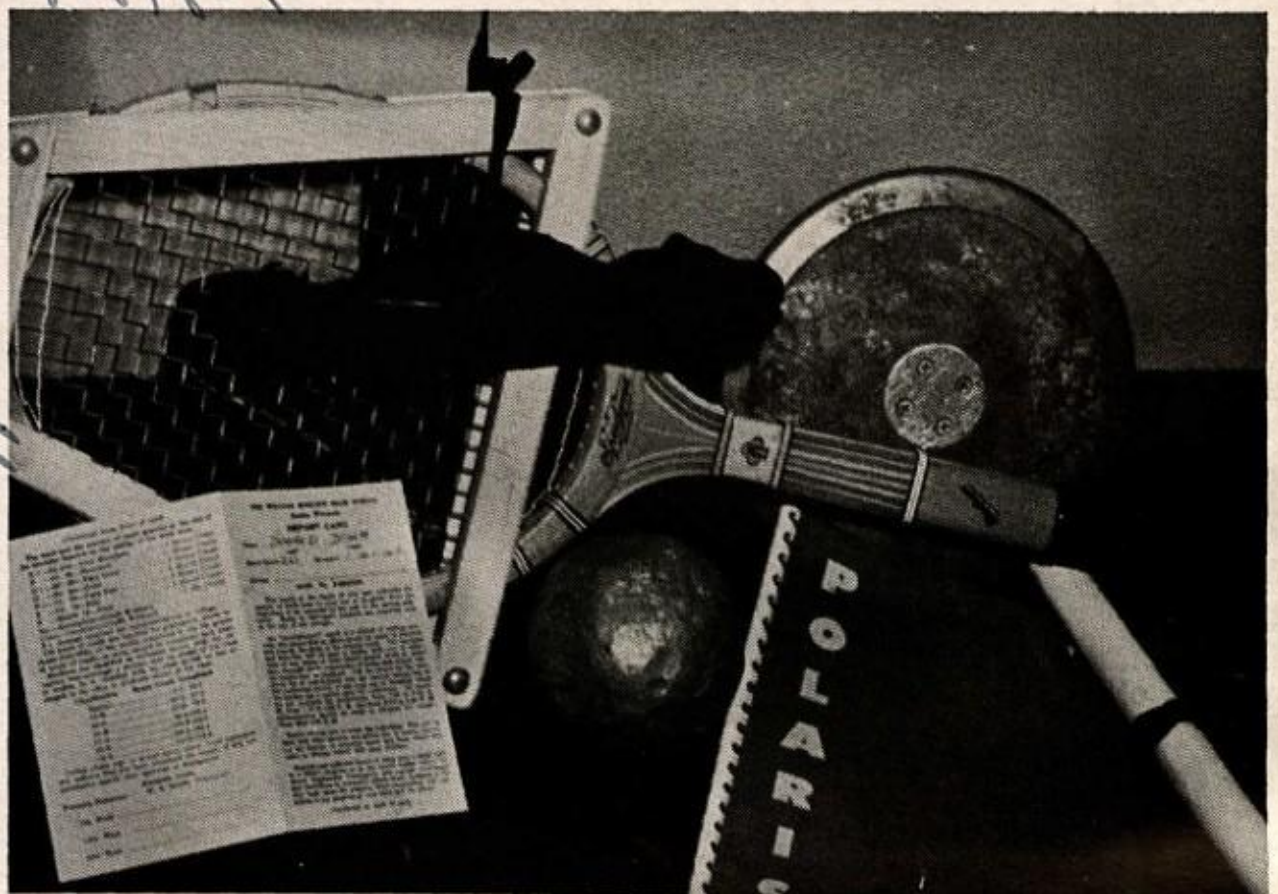

The place of honor for the year
We've tried to pass around,
But now the other honors fade
And senior praises sound.

I have only known
you but a short time
I really hadn't much to get to know you but I do know of you from the halls and Latin class
Think you are a swell person.
I'm glad we got you in our Junior Class
now, Hauie, you have done a lot for our school and I do hope that you'll be here next year again.

Good Luck next year, have fun this summer and I'll see you next year, of which is our last chapter of high school!

Bye now
Lipie

Dear Hawie,
You better get back in the swing of things or the school will fall apart. No fooling, get on the committee again. Don't be lazy like me. You're going to miss me at the office. Thanks for the job. See you next year, I hope.

Strumming his way through a rehearsal of the Horlick talent show is Laslie Ihasz. In the background demonstrating his manly charms(?) to Joyce Southwell and Diane Sperberg, other members of the cast, is Ted Kehl.

Checking over the script with Director Chuck Hobbs is Bruce "Jumping Jack" Mann. Looking on are Howard "Jack Jr." Amsterdam and Ted "Borzome Well" Kehl, also members of the cast.

Horlick Presents

TALENT SHOW

Horlick's third consecutive talent show took almost fifteen hundred customers to a genuine Western dude ranch, the JJ Bar None.

Under the able direction of Tom Larsen and Chuck Hobbs, supervised by Mr. Nemacheck, the show departed from the previous custom of having a narrator, and this year depended upon the acting alone to carry the story.

Capitalizing on the stock "mellerdramer" situation, of the mortgaged ranch in the hands of a heartless dude ranch owner, Jumpin' Jack, old Marshall is almost forced to yield his beautiful daughter to J.J.'s son.

A travelling Hollywood movie company going on location to make a Western epic arrives just in time to save the day, and the beautiful Amy falls in love with Borzome Wells, the self-styled genius of the cinema troupe.

"Thatching" a roof (with paint) for the scenery are Jim Klema, Nona Klapproth, and Joyce Levandowski. Mixing paint in the foreground are Marge Blaser and Scenery Chairman Darlene Joslin.

Building a corral for the show are Jim Remley and Ron Banker. Inside the corral, not to be mistaken for horses, are Jack Hinze and "Camera-shy" Tom Klapproth.

An old-fashioned soft shoe routine to the strains of "By the Sea" found B. Albrecht, D. Keller, D. Kizewic, N. Weitkum, and U. Doss in the pictured pose. Practicing on their own with the help of D. Sperberg, unpictured, the boys almost stopped the show.

Co-ordinating the music and art department's efforts for the Spring Concert, Mr. Hubbard induced Miss Jenkins and her hard-working art students to create the scenery. Shown during a class session are S. Seyferth, C. Tesser, J. Barra, and G. Zeiler.

Practicing for a chorus line dance are C. Becker, R. Petersen, V. Kruppstadt, A. Marck, and C. Walker. The flashback during the concert music to the scenes of yesteryear were a main feature of this year's presentation.

Spring Program

Spring Concert

On April 27, the annual Spring Concert under the direction of Mr. Hubbard was presented in the Horlick gymnasium.

The combined efforts of the band, A Cappella, Lorelei and Mixed Chorus produced a superb performance which rewarded the participants with many favorable comments acknowledging their many hours of hard work.

Among the band selections played were "Mardi Gras" by Grofe, and "Pavanne" by Gould.

Two of the A Cappella numbers enjoyed the most

by the audience were "Hail Our Redeemer" and "Star Dust."

"Make Believe" and "Great Is Thy Love" were among the numbers presented by Lorelei.

The highlight of the evening was the Finale— "In the Good Old Summertime." Soloists were Evelyn Peterson and Bob Gall. Mary Meldonian and Vince Vassallo sang a duet. The audience enjoyed seeing an old time Charleston performed by Diane Sperberg and a group of A Cappella boys. A group of Lorelei members also gave a dance number.

Caught by surprise when the photographer first found them in the third floor corridor are S. Seyferth, C. Tesser, J. Barra, and G. Zeiler.

Working closely with the students, Mr. Hubbard, surrounded by S. Chalekian, H. Haban, J. Kristopeit, and J. Ziesemer, was able to direct the show with virtually no help from other members of the faculty. Miss Sorenson, not pictured, aided with the music.

Spring

GOLF

Among the eight Golf team members, Coach Stewart had four lettermen, S. Bull, C. Hobbs, J. Ashenfelter, and B. Giese. Although the team won the state final last year, they found tough golfing against Park, Kenosha, Janesville, Shorewood, and other teams. The team competed in the Hartford invitational, the Big Eight, and the State Tournament.

TENNIS

Under the direction of Mr. Bahnson, the boys of the Tennis team earn a major letter as well as learn skill in handling a tennis racket and co-ordination of the body. They learn to work together, and with a large number of lettermen back, the team played good games. The tennis team practices on the courts in back of the school. Although they do not belong to any league, the team plays other school teams within a reasonable distance. Because of the Polaris publication date, the team's progress could not be printed.

Unrecognized in last year's Polaris, was Horlick's state championship golf team:

Sports

The track boys had a cold start this year. They ran in unseasonable weather through mud and slush to prepare for the four team track meet at Park, April 21, which was the first meet of the season. The four teams participating were Horlick, Park, Kenosha and South Milwaukee. After this meet the boys had better weather while they prepared for the six team meet held on May 5 in Kenosha. These six teams included Horlick, Park, Kenosha, Waukegan, Wauwatosa, and West Allis Central. Two Horlick vs. Park dual meets were the other important events.

The track meets are just preparatory steps for the Sectional and the State meets held later in the season. On May 19 the WIAA Sectional Meet was held, and then the State Meet. Finally, on June 2 the Big Eight schools met at Kenosha for the final track meet of the season. The school with the most points at the Big Eight received the much-sought trophy.

Assistant Coach Ben Ewers has no trouble demonstrating good pole vaulting technique to Horlick's potential track stars. In order to shoot this close-up as Mr. Ewers was just topping the seventeen foot mark, several inches above Cornelius Warmerdam's world record. Photographer Bohn had to find a seat atop one of the field lights on the track.

Practice, practice, and more practice in the difficult art of getting the proper take-off for the sprints is demanded of G. Asdigian, T. Klapproth, and J. Fetek. In the accompanying picture, J. Fetek clears the low hurdle in good form.

3RD ROW— Mr. Rebholz, J. Fetek, D. Iselin, D. Mertins, D. Meyer, D. Neergard, D. Effenberger, J. Wilkerson.

The End of an Era

The dances, sports, committees, clubs, offices, and honor - yes, and the classes, too - are at an end now for the Class of 1951. That's a proud title, isn't it? The Class of 1951! Where will each of us be five, ten, fifteen, twenty years from graduation day? When will we have our first reunion? How will it find us?

But the dances, sports, committees, clubs, offices and honor, as well as the classes, aren't completely at an end for us. They will work for us, just as we worked in them at Horlick, and they will answer the questions we've just asked.

And can those activities ever be at an end for us while we remember - happily - our days at Horlick?

THE ROYAL COURT

The music stops, the lights go down, and the trumpets herald the announcing of the King and Queen of the Winter Ball, Cupid's Capers. The Queen of last year's winter ball, June Green, goes up the white aisle with an arm full of red roses and the five candidates for King, J. Jameson, V. Vassallo, J. Vierheilig, D. Kizewic, B. Gall; and J. Southwell, S. Felbob, M. Meldonian, A. Gregory, and S. Chapek for Queen follow taking their places along the aisle. The trumpets blow again and J. Heft solemnly announces J. Southwell and D. Kizewic this year's King and Queen.

Each year the school honors a senior boy and a senior girl to be its King and Queen. The school nominates many students for this honor and, from these, ten are chosen to be in the Royal Court. From these ten two are chosen as King and Queen.

Dear Harvey,
It has been nice knowing you this past year. I hope you get in some more of my classes
next year. Thanks for listening up journalism. Some one has too. Good luck always,
Dulwich boy -
Rich Bahr

Dear Howie,

It's been nice
having you at Horlick and in journalism class.
Good luck next year,
and during the summer.
Mario Christanson

Dear Howard,
up with you did a swell year. The in Council. Keep your good work next year. Good luck in Betty's senior year.
Good luck in the future.
Carol Nelson

Dear Howie,
It's been swell having you in my classes. I hope you are in them
next year

Johnson

Dear Howie,
It's been nice knowing you. I wish you lots of luck in the future and in anything you do. It's been lot of fun in American Problem
Class, especially when I sit behind you.

Mary Balice

Hi Howie,

How's lots of luck to a swell kid whom I like a lot. I hope you are in some of my classes next year. I hope we will see each other this summer.
Have fun, but take it easy with the girls they all love you, really they do.
Your huddy always,
"Patch"

Dear Howie,
I won't forget to invite you to my wedding.
Gloria Peiler

Hawie,

I know how hard it is to switch schools, but in your junior year, you've made a wonderful impression on all of us. I wish you all the success in the world for the future.

Jacki Sommerfeld

Best of luck to the guy who is going to go places as far as this school is concerned
next year.
I guess today

Well Hawie,
I've missed you a lot.
This year isn't so warm
I have nothing but respect for you give 'em hell me next year

Don't forget you'll be back Don't forget you'll be back
Don't forget you'll be back

Dear Hawie,
Your mate, geometry measuring!

Don't forget our Polaris class. Don't forget to do a good job next year.
Sue Chalukian

You're doing fine Howard.
Best of luck Always,
Sally Flattus
(51)

Did you see my fat boy?
Well see him off to the opera with Abigail good for you "milly"

To the boy who brightened up a dull class. (A.P.)
See you next year.
Sally Hanson

Faye.

Best wishes and Good Luck.
art. Benton.

Hi Howie,
Here's with best wishes for next year and thereafter.
Hope you learn to like Harlick as much as Central. Good luck always, Mom
Zitka "51"

To Howie,
The best campaign manager I ever had, even if I did lose.
Jack Hing

Howie,
It's only been a year that I've known you, but in that time I've found that you are really a true friend. I hope I'll see a lot of you this summer, and next fall we'll really go to work on that debate topic. Lots of luck
Bruce Mann

Don't forget Caesar, and neither that I was here and talked.
You will forget me, but remember mankind, and that there should be something like peace. Fred.

Best of luck to you and your family.
I hope you'll be happy and successful
in everything you do.
Love,
John
